Adults Really Care...

The best thing about Winning Futures is seeing that adults really care about teenagers. At first I was thinking, "These adults don't know me. They won't really care." But in the end, the mentors and Laurie give you a different insight of life. They show you that strangers can really care about you. I learned that they can be one of the many connections and sources in getting a job or just making you smile. My mentor Molly was so great and I loved spending time with her in and out of the classroom because she didn't make me nervous or feel awkward. Winning Futures is the best program I have ever been in.

Christina, Cousino High School
